

KDHE GEOLOGY SECTION
(UIC, UNDERGROUND HYDROCARBON STORAGE, WATER WELL PROGRAMS)

SPRING 2006 SEMINAR

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

Operators, managers, consultants, drillers, and other facility or company personnel responsible for or working with Class I, III, or V Underground Injection Control wells, Underground Hydrocarbon Storage wells or Water Wells.

WHEN:

Thursday, May 4, 2006

LOCATION:

Sedgwick County Extension
Education Center
7001 W. 21st Street North
Wichita, Kansas 67205-1759

A variety of interesting topics will be covered including:

UIC, Hydrocarbon Storage Well and Water Well program updates, update on the Hutchinson sinkhole, update from EPA and presentations on the hydrogeology of Kansas, plugging of mine shafts in Southeast Kansas mining district, cathodic protection wells, global climate change, electronic reporting and problem solving using monitoring data.

Visit us at: <http://www.kdheks.gov/geo>